

Sylvie Courvoisier

Swiss Born Composer/improviser Sylvie Courvoisier is one of the most creative and imaginative pianists in new music.

A frequent collaborator of Mark Feldman, Ikue Mori and John Zorn, she is a member of Mephista and co-leads the Sylvie Courvoisier/Mark Feldman Quartet and is the leader her own quintet "Lonelyville" and the trio Abaton.

Since 1997, she also performs regularly alone and in Duo with violinist Mark Feldman.

Selected discography

- Oblivia (Tzadik 2010) with Mark Feldman
- To Fly To Steal (Intakt) with Feldman, Thomas Morgan , Gerry Hemmingway
- Signs and Epigrams (Tzadik 2007, solo)
- Lonelyville (Intakt 2007, with Ikue Mori, Mark Feldman, Vincent Courtois, Gerald Cleaver)
- Abaton (ECM Records 2004, with Feldman, Erik Friedlander)
- Malphas (Tzadik 2006, duo with Feldman, music of John Zorn)
- Entomological Reflections (Tzadik 2004, MEPHISTA: Courvoisier, Mori and Susie Ibarra)